What is TURCH?

THE UPPER ROOM CRISIS HOTLINE is a national, comprehensive, supportive service for priests, deacons, and men religious. It is a private, not-for-profit corporation registered in the State of Illinois.

We offer compassionate-skilled listening, reassurance calls, information and referrals, as well as crisis intervention. Through these services, The Upper Room Crisis Hotline (TURCH) contributes to the on-going education and spiritual formation of Diocesan clergy and members of Religious Institutes of Men. The unique pastoral serve supports their physical, emotional, mental health needs, and concerns.

What is the Sunshine Service?

The Sunshine Service is a unique pastoral service offered to priests, deacons, and men religious. It is designed to provide assistance and encouragement to men who are living alone or in small groups, retired from active ministry, isolated from their peers, or who are dealing with health issues.

The Sunshine Service provides:

- A daily phone call
- Service available 24/7/365
- Trained volunteers
- Confidential conversation
- Referrals as needed
- Emergency assistance

Registration Request

Once we have received your registration form, we will contact you for pertinent information necessary to begin The Sunshine Service. All calls are handled by trained volunteers and are completely confidential. No information will be released to anyone concerning calls received or calls made, except in an emergency. Remember, we can call you at any time of the day or night since we are available 24/7/365. Likewise, you can call us at any time. We look forward to hearing from you.
